

Your CMCA Social Media FAM Trip

Does your LinkedIn Tout your Facebook or feign Pinterest? Does Instagram make you Twitter? Are you worried if you go viral on Youtube you will need a doctor? Does your Delicious Digg Google+?

Just think, not too long ago we were excited about email. That was when we had one email account to manage. Now we get to juggle multiple email accounts and social media platforms. Some wonder what happened while others are blazing trails through the new media called "social".

Let's connect and go on this journey together. Let's learn some tips, safety pointers and get an overview of which app does what in upcoming newsletters.

Please share your questions with me. We'll see what we can discover together. Email – Julia-Isabel@MaximizeYourPublicity.com
